ABOUT JUSTIN

Pastor Justin Herman is the founder and host of Carpooling with Jesus, a daily five-minute Bible devotional podcast for kids and families. He started it for his own kids on the drive to school, and the first episode went out on January 6, 2025. Weekday episodes are free, with no ads and no sponsors.

The show has passed a million plays, downloads and views, with listeners in all 50 states and repeat listeners in more than 90 countries. In 2026 it became a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, Carpooling with Jesus Ministries, which Justin founded and leads as executive director.

He is also the Online Discipleship Pastor at Mariners Church and spent six years as a junior high pastor. He lives in Arizona with his wife, Brittany, and their four kids.

EPISODE IDEAS

Faith in the ordinary minutes
Turning the drive to school, the dinner table and bedtime into the most steady discipleship time of the day.

Why five minutes is enough
Short, daily and repeatable: building a Bible habit that fits real family life.

Starting a podcast for your own kids
How a devotional for one family's school run grew to listeners in all 50 states.

Screens, kids and the Bible
Helping kids and parents follow Jesus when there is a screen in every pocket.

Family discipleship for busy parents
Simple rhythms of Scripture, prayer and conversation that do not need an extra hour.
